OLD BUSINESS

HUNT MASTER: We are still in need of a hunt master. However, if you are a member you can hunt on your own during meeting times. Since we do not have a Hunt master the club has voted on two big Hunts this year. The first will be the Mother's Day (Rosie) Metal Detecting Hunt on May 4, 2024, starting at 12pm. This will be a potluck. Club will provide hamburgers and hot dogs. Please bring a dish to share. We will start to serve at 1pm so hunters can eat and continue to hunt. Tradition has always been men to encouraged to wear a dress. this is optional. Special Prize for this. There will be lots of treasures to hunt!!! The club will have a first, second and third place prize for these who find a token. Flowers will be given out to the ladies. Come out and enjoy the festivities, food, and meeting. NON-MEMBERS are encouraged to participate! We will advertise this event. Alan McCary, Curtis Atkins and Ray Sparks will act as Hunt masters for this event.

Mr. Turner is still wanting to buy gold from Turner property to make jewelry for family members.

New Business:

1 For those who did not take advantage of club discount before January 31st, Camp and maintenance fees are back to original price of $120 each. You must be up with 2023 due and up to date with current dues to get a key. Locks to be changed 4th or 5th of April.

2. Again storms have wreaked havoc. Please make it a point to come out and check your campsite. As of this meeting a member called to say a windstorm has come through and added to the existing damage.

3. Common Dig attentively in April. The club will try to make it as before with piles to work. high bankers.

4.Safety. Chilly weather people have been using buddy heaters. Be sure your tank is outside your tent and fuel lines are tight. Main thing be sure your tent is vented.

2024 Prospecting season has officially launched! Invite your friends and family to join. Fun is to be had by all campfire stories, gold, metal detecting . A new adventure!!!!
